6. In the event of your death, sufficient life insurance coverage can help protect your family, help pay your mortgage, provide money for education and so much more. By the way, smart business owners also remember to assure continued operation of their firms following the loss of key personnel, fire, theft or storm. Agent Nathan Young offers a variety of business coverage plans.

7. Litigation is commonplace in 21st century America. Make sure you're protected from major liability claims with an umbrella policy from American Family Insurance agent Nathan Young. And remember, if you ever need to file a claim on any policy, we take good care of you with 24-hour, toll-free, nationwide claims service. Thank you for your patience while holding.

8. Here are some important tips when leaving your home unattended. Lock your doors and windows. Use electric timers on lights. And don't leave a key under your doormat; that's the first place a thief might look. Also, ask a neighbor you trust to keep a close watch on your property while you're away. American Family agent Nathan Young cares about your security.
